

Entertainment and the media videoing with Naoko

Naoko: Hi, How are you?

Chiaki: I have a headache, because you know, the day before yesterday, I fell down on the stairs ~~from~~ ^{and hit} my head. So I have ^a bump on my head, so I have a headache. How about you?

N: I have a cold.

C: Are you ok?

N: Yes. Thank you.

C: Did you watched ~~the~~ TV yesterday?

N: Yes. Our show time, I forgot the title. I watched Shimura Ken's ^{a program of a} ~~program~~.

C: I didn't watch it, because yesterday, I ~~have~~ had a part-time job, so I couldn't watch TV ~~much time~~. I watched ~~TV~~ only news. ^{this} ^{not so}

N: Do you watch ~~ed~~ news?

C: ^{(Sometimes) ok!} A little bit, because we can get a lot of information, and it is easy to get information ^{of} ~~from~~ the news, but I don't remember yesterday's news.

N: ^{That's} It's not good.

N: I just watch ^{the} weather focus.

C: It is important for us.

N: Every morning, I check the ~~temperature~~ ^{temperature.}

No.

Date

C: Me too, but Canadians ^{the story of weather} likes ~~weathers~~ story. When I ~~come~~... went to Canada, my ~~home~~ ^{host} family talked about ^{the} weather every day, so...

N: I'm Canadian.

C: So, I told my host family... host mother every days ^{temperchers} every morning ^{with}.

N: It's interesting.

C: So, Canadians ^{proverve of weather} have a weathers proverve. In Japanese Kotowaza.

C: I like listening ^{to} music, so I don't watch TV much times.
How about you?

N: Me too. I like listening to music ^{watching} better than TV.

C: What kind of music do you like?

N: Pop-~~rock~~ music.

C: ^{Who is} ~~Whose~~ your favorite singer?

N: I like "EXILE"

C: I know ^{them}.

N: You know ^{them} and Namie Amuro.

C: Me too. ~~I went to...~~ I'm gonna go ^{to} her concert in December.
I could get ticket.

N: Oh, it's good.
